

- † Praise to the Lord for two good weeks of camp with eternal dividends! We had a total of 83 campers. It was very rainy at times, but God held back the rain at just the right times! We are grateful to our staff and camp speakers who served. We still owe some money to Penn York, please pray that the additional dollars come in soon so we can pay off our debt.
- † After camp, Jeanne was able to attend and enjoy the BCMI Annual Conference. Mogrens stayed home to keep an eye on their wet basement. They experienced some minor flooding with all the rain that fell and caused havoc in Big Flats, NY.
- † August 31 – Mogrens attended a Yankee’s game. 😊 They were gifted tickets! It was a great game!
- † Mogrens will be enjoying some time away Sept 13 -20 in Williamsburg, VA. They are grateful for this opportunity.
- † Please check out our 2nd Annual CABC FALL 5K at this link.

- † The process of contacting area schools to set up Fall classes has started. Please pray for doors to remain open and good working relationships between the schools and us. Please pray for many children to attend.
- † September 26 – Day of Prayer for Central NY BCMI missionaries.
- † September 27 – Committee Meeting
- † We ask for continued prayers that God will send some new and younger fulltime missionaries to join our local team!

True prayer is neither a mere mental exercise nor a vocal performance. It is far deeper than that - it is spiritual transaction with the Creator of Heaven and Earth.
